Greetings friend!

News from the Battle Front!

Nobody alive today, regardless of ancestry, deserves any blame or credit for what happened in the past. Credit and blame belong only to the people who lived then.

None of us alive today had anything to do with slavery or the freeing of the slave. None of us alive today had anything to do with the accomplishments of the American Revolution or establishing the principles embodied in the Constitution.

We can only learn from the good and bad that happened in the past. One of the most disturbing aspects in CRT, including the concept of reparations, is that it attributes generational, collective guilt based on pedigree (privilege) and complexion.

Library Update

Informed Parents of Silicon Valley has formed a working group to identify and expose inappropriate books in our local elementary school libraries. These books contain passages that feature pedophilia, gay sex, and heterosexual sex. We are searching for other inappropriate books available to our children in our elementary school libraries and classroom libraries.

Our intent is to orally present the findings of the working group to the offending School District Board of Trustees in an open/public meeting.

IPSV will keep you apprised of our findings and the specific dates and locations at which we plan to share our information with the school board members.

Our objective is to have the school board members agree to immediately remove the inappropriate material and form a combined school/parent taskforce to view all books available in the school libraries in the district.

Help Wanted! Help needed in each school in the valley!

We rely on volunteers to fuel the engine of IPSV. We need your help! We especially need parents and grandparents to help us implement our OPT OUT program in each public school in the valley!

Our intent is to help parents regain their parental rights and retain their parental control and sovereignty over the education and raising of their children. We wish to facilitate their ability to OPT their children OUT of any formal or informal survey such as:

- Political beliefs of my child or my family
- Mental or psychological problems of my child or my family
- Sex behavior questioning including my child's preferred pronouns or "gender identity"
- Illegal, anti-social, self-incriminating behavior such as "white privilege" or systemic racism
- Legally recognized relationships such as attorneys, or physicians, or clergy
- Religious practices or affiliations
- Family income

Additionally, the school district cannot refer your child to any third party “neutral health” counselor, social worker, or abortion provider such as Planned Parenthood without your express permission.

You as the parent are responsible for the physical, emotional, financial, and social wellbeing of your child. The school district is not. Their role is a supporting role for the child’s family.

If you wish information about how you may help, please drop us an email at info@ip-sv.org.

Donate online Today

We are a non-profit organization that relies solely on generous giving from people like you. Please consider joining us in this journey by donating to Informed Parents.

- Did you know that IPSV is a 100% self-supporting ministry?
- Did you know we rely solely on donations from the citizens we represent?
- Did you know we do not receive funding from the government?
- Did you know all donations to IPSV are tax-deductible?
- Did you know all donations are kept private, no matter the size?
